Bitter Weather Hits Montana

HELENA, Mont. (UPI) — A bitter cold wave hit Montana today on the heels of a blizzard. Temperatures plummeted as low as 34 degrees below zero.

Challenge To Bonus Takes Shape

LOUISVILLE (UPI) — A legal challenge to the veterans' bonus amendment to the state Constitution was taking shape today.

Robert T. Caldwell, Ashland attorney who has been retained by the Associated Industries of Kentucky to prepare the case, said he believes the amendment — in which the bonus is increased to $4,000 — will be struck down.

He did not state his exact reason for thinking so, but it generally believed the amendment will be struck down on grounds that it did not properly state the substance of the proposal, as required by the Constitution.

The question the ballot, for example, did not spell out that the amendment would authorize bonus payments to heirs and next of kin of veterans, as well as to veterans themselves.

Wyatt will give address during inauguration.

FRANKFORT (UPI) — For what may be the first time, the lieutenant governor-elect as well as the incoming governor will deliver an inaugural address when inauguration ceremonies are held here Dec. 8.

James Nutter, chairman of the inauguration committee, said the committee had invited Wilson Wyatt, the incoming lieutenant governor, to speak at the ceremonies in front of the Capitol, as well as governor-elect Bert T. Combs.

Wyatt said he was "honored and glad to do so."

Also taking part in the program after the traditional parade will be U.S. Rep. John C. Wynn, who will introduce the new governor, and Frankfort Mayor John Gerard, who will introduce outgoing Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Nutter will act as master of ceremonies.

Girl Scouts Will Hold Art Exhibit

The girl scouts will have an art exhibit at the court house during the week of November 16th.

Scouts of all ages can participate and this year the exhibit is expanded to include any art work, craft, work, and etc. Entries can be made in basketry, ceramics, or other divisions.

Judges will be students from the art departments of Murray State College.

Letter to the Editor

Mr. James C. Williams
Ledger and Times
Murray, Kentucky

Dear Jim:

I want you to know how grateful I am for the kindness and assistance which you gave to me and the other Democratic candidates in the campaign just ended.

Your help, I feel certain, contributed substantially to the record-breaking approval which the voters of Kentucky gave to us and our cause in the November 3 election.

We are proud that you share our judgement of what is good for your community and Kentucky. And as we prepare to put our program into effect, it is encouraging to know that enlightened people like yourself are cheering us on.

Do come to see me in Frankfort after December 8. The Governor's office will always be open to you.

With gratitude and all good wishes,
Sincerely,
Bert Combs

SUSPECT AND HOSTAGE — Police in St. Petersburg, Fla., questioned Lylo Theodore Ennis, 25, in their investigation of the five-hour gun battle at the Lakewood country club, in which caretaker John L. MacDonald, 58, was held hostage and used as a shield for escape.

Ennis was arrested when he tried to hitchhike a ride in an unmarked police car. His own car had been found hidden in woods about a mile from the club.

On the road I passed an abandoned motor car. It belonged to a sub-chief of the Watutsi tribe of giants—and he, with his wife and children, was dragged out of the car and massacred in an ambush laid by vengeful Bahutus.

A state of emergency was declared Thursday night.

Belgium administers the kingdom of Ruanda for the United Nations and has promised self-government by the end of next year.

Gruesome Sight — But the row of headless bodies lying behind the banana trees makes one wonder if it is really quite time for the ballot box.

I went today to the Roman Catholic mission at Save, near Astrida.

FASHION SHOW — The Murray State Club will present a Festive Fashion Show Sunday, November 22nd, at 2:30 in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

The Festive Fashions will be supplied by Tracy's Dress Shop. Admission is 35¢.

DAUGHTER BORN — Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Gallimore, 200 West Cottage, Apartment 4, Bristow, California, announce the arrival of a baby daughter. The baby was born on October 25 and has been named Tamara Balinda.

Mrs. Gallimore is the former Diane Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hub Erwin of South Pleasant Grove. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Gallimore of Puryear, Tennessee. At present, Mr. Gallimore is serving in the army in California.

Girl Scout Troop 28 Has Investiture Ceremony

After having completed the necessary training and requirements these seventeen girls received their Girl Scout Pins in Candlelight Ceremony. Reading from left to right, front row: Diane Lassiter, Vickie McKeel, Kaye Erwin, Linda Cunningham, Jerilyn Washer, Andrea Kemper, Sarah Lewis, Becky Bailey, Kathy Rayburn, Marilyn Alexander, Cynthia Wright. Back row: Mrs. Vinson Thomas, Leader, Mrs. Jesse Bowland, Asst. Senior Scout, Connie Cassidy, Julianne Evans, Susan Tessenner, Linda Dunn, Linda Dunn, Becky Hendon, Kathy Scott, Miss Diane Keith, Asst. Senior Scout, Mrs. Ralph Tessenner, Leader.

Deadly Fighting Is Done By Pygmies For Giant Overlords

EDITOR'S NOTE: Fighting among natives in Belgium's U.N.-mandated African territory of Ruanda has reached the proportions of full-scale civil war, it was announced in Brussels today. In the following dispatch, a London Daily Express reporter on the scene gives an eyewitness account of the savagery of the fighting.

where some particularly vicious fighting has taken place.

The handsome Father Gesche, head of the mission, feels certain that Communist influence is making headway, particularly among the Watutsi.

"It is a real threat," he declared.

And Father Gesche told me of men being cut in half during the fighting and infants having their brains dashed out by raving warriors.

They've got crocodiles in this territory, elephants and deadly venomous snakes.

Worse Than Animals — But the ferocity of the wild animals is well matched by that of the humans around here.

As one contemplated the headless corpses, the bodies with hands or feet hacked off as trophies, the bodies slashed beyond recognition by machete or spear, one had only to glance up to see the framework of gentle misty beauty all around.

In contrast, this has been internecine warfare at its foulest and most unforgiving.

Intertribe warfare filled with white-hot hate and a single-minded determination only to kill and maim.

Warfare between the Bahutus, the traditional serfs of the land, and the Watutsi, the gigantic overlords, helped by their deadly bands of mercenary killers, the pygmies.

Librarians Hold Meet Last Week

The fourteenth annual meeting of the High School Library Assistant's Workshop was held last week at Murray State College. The meeting was sponsored by Rosina E. Senter, Head of the Library Science Department and Library Science Students.

Included in the one day program were a number of talks and a panel on "One Day in the Library" was also held.

Mrs. Lechie Hart, librarian at Murray High School spoke on "Why Be Librarian?"

A librarian's panel was held just before noon on the topic "One Day in the Library."

Approximately 268 persons were in attendance with 21 schools being represented.

During the afternoon various demonstrations were given on how to preserve books and other periodicals in a library.

PTA TO MEET — The Almo PTA will meet Monday night, November 16 at 7 o'clock p.m. with a program presented by the First, Second and Third Grades. The guest speaker will be Mr. Burton Jeffrey. All parents are urged to attend.

College Student Is Held On An Armed Robbery Charge

Fourth Street and Harris' Grocery, next to the old hoisery mill.

They're charged with breaking and entering last Saturday night the two broke into Flannery's Grocery and took a hunting lantern and tried to enter Harris' Grocery.

They returned on this past Tuesday succeeded in breaking into the store and took two watches, three knives, cigars, cigarettes, $5.00 in cash, candy, flashlights, batteries and shotgun shells.

The two were placed in custody of their parents until their hearing but succeeded in leaving home where they could not be found.

They were located again and today Deputy Vernon Roberts placed both of the boys in the detention cell at the County Court House.

Local Person Involved In Paris Suit

A Paris, Tennessee Circuit Court is pondering a decision on three damage suits, the outgrowth of a serious automobile accident which occurred north of Paris last year when one woman was killed and two other persons seriously injured.

The suit involves Mrs. Lyndia Nicks of Murray.

Testimony was completed in the three suits Wednesday afternoon and the jury began deliberations at 4 p.m. Unable to reach a decision by 5 o'clock, the jury was dismissed until 9 a.m. Thursday.

The jury foreman reported at noon that it still had not reached a decision. After a recess for lunch, the jury re-assembled at 1 o'clock to continue deliberations.

Complainants in the suits are seeking recovery of a total of more than $200,000. The fatal accident occurred on Highway 641 north of Paris on May 9, 1958, when Mrs. Jane Tolly Hughes of Madisonville, Ky., died from injuries.

Lyndia Faye Nicks, of Murray, driver of one of the cars involved in the 3-car collision is seeking damages from Miss Joy McCree, driver of another of the cars. Dallas B. Nicks, another plaintiff, names Joy McCree, W. A. Jackson and C. Thomas Tolly as defendants in his suit; and the third plaintiff, Wesley T. Hughes names Lyndia Faye Nicks and Mrs. J. R. Nicks as defendants.

FIVE DAY FORECAST — The extended weather forecast for Kentucky for the five day period Saturday through Wednesday:

Temperatures will average about nine degrees below seasonal normals (Kentucky's normal mean 46, Louisville's normal extremes 55 and 36). Much colder weather Saturday and Sunday with a warming trend about Tuesday. Precipitation will total about one half to one inch, in occasional rain tonight and early Saturday, and possibly again Tuesday and Wednesday.

Runaway Diesel Engine Is Halted

JERSEY CITY (UPI) — A huge diesel locomotive with a runaway board rolled out of the freight yards here Thursday night and lumbered 22 miles through three New Jersey counties.

Officials said the brake apparently failed to hold and the train was off on its spree.

The runaway diesel chugged out of Jersey City and into Bayonne.

Meanwhile, back at the dispatcher's office, the railroad placed emergency calls to switching stations along the route to clear the tracks of oncoming passenger trains.

Scheduled trains were rerouted or held up at some points while the runaway engine was eased from one track to another. It kept clicking through Bayonne, Elizabeth, across the Newark, Bay drawbridge into the Meadowlands and onto Middlesex County.

Railroad officials then dispatched another engine of the same class to intercept the runaway diesel.

The second locomotive ran along the tracks just ahead of the runaway engine and permitted it to catch up and effect a gentle coupling. Both engines then were brought to a halt in the railroad yard.

A NEW MEN'S DORMITORY will be built at Murray State College. The $683,000 building has been approved by the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency, and bids for its construction will be soon asked by the college. To house 242 men, the dormitory will be built in the Orchard Heights area of the campus, north of Carlisle Cutchin Stadium. It is scheduled for completion during the 1960-61 school year.

Lee Potter Smith & Associates, Paducah architectural firm, designed the building.

Wild Scramble To Ensure In Southeastern Conference Sat.

By DAVID M. MOFFIT

United Press International
ATLANTA, (UPI) — Southeastern Conference football-Saturday programs to be a wild scramble for bowl invitations and better standings in the Conference and national ratings.

The key game, so far as the Conference is concerned, is at Athens, Ga., where the league-leading Georgia Bulldogs will be host to the second-place Auburn Tigers. A Georgia victory, unlikely but quite possible, would give the Bulldogs the SEC title. If Auburn wins, it will throw the race wide open with five possible contenders.

Georgia has been a big surprise this fall — quietly winning five straight SEC games and staying out in front of the league from the start. A mild upset over Auburn would guarantee the Bulldogs no worse than a 6-1 Conference record, and if Auburn loses there is no other team able to match that mark.

The Georgia-Auburn game is expected to be a rugged defensive duel. The Bulldogs have allowed only three enemy touchdowns in their five SEC outings — Auburn only one. Georgia figures to have a passing edge, Auburn a running edge, and they stack up about even in punting. The difference should come in the line where Auburn has a weight advantage of nearly 15 pounds per man.

If it's ratings you're interested in, turn your attention to Memphis, Tenn., where the seven-ranked Mississippi Rebels meet the 10th-ranked Tennessee Volunteers.

That game should be a real bloodletting. Once-beaten Mississippi outplayed but lost to fourth-ranked Louisiana State, 7-3. Once-beaten Tennessee was outplayed but beat Louisiana State, 14-13.

Auburn, still entangled in that pair of 44-40-back three-year bowl bans by the NCAA, has no bowl interest. But the other four mentioned above are considered prime candidates for one of the major bowls.

Bowling will also be a major consideration at Birmingham, Ala., where the twice-beaten but 14th-ranked Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets meet once-beaten, but tied Alabama. And, bowl officials will keep an eye on Baton Rouge, La., where the Louisiana State Bengals will be host to Mississippi State.

Elsewhere in the Southeast this weekend, independent Miami will be host to South Carolina of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the Orange Bowl Friday night; Tulane will be host to Vanderbilt, Kentucky to Xavier of Ohio, and Florida State to William and Mary on Saturday afternoon; and Mississippi Southern will entertain Chattanooga Saturday night.

Wilt The Stilt Leaves His Opponent Limp

United Press International

What are you going to tell a man after you've pitted him against Wilt Chamberlain, except that you're sorry?

Walt Dukes of Detroit, who said he could stop the Philadelphia flipper, was the latest National Basketball Association giant to test Chamberlain's massive scoring strength Wednesday night as Wilt led 17 rebounds in the Warriors' 119-105 victory over the Pistons.
Chamberlain, travelling along at a 38-point-a-game pace, repeatedly batted away Dukes' efforts to score and held the Detroit center to 22 points.

Wilt also improved his shooting eye at the foul line, having one of his best nights as he connected on nine of 12 attempts.

The Philadelphia victory left the Warriors a game back of the Eastern Division leading Boston Celtics, who walloped Cincinnati, 151-118,
in the only other league action.

The Celtics overshadowed a 49-point performance by the Royals' Jack Twyman as they won their 10th straight from Cincinnati, Boston, led by Bill Sharman's 32 points missed tying the record for a quarter at the Garden with a 48-point spree in the third period.
Boston now has won eight of nine games this season. Philadelphia has taken six of seven contests.

British Tax Law Lacks Romance

LONDON — (UPI) — It's a good idea to see your accountant before getting married in England because in many cases two definitely cannot live as cheaply as one.

The British tax system makes the difference. Married couples often lose allowances to which they are entitled as single persons.
Laments a 68-year-old man who married for years ago:
"It was foolish of me not to consult an accountant before getting married. We might have elected to remain single."

About 15 per cent of the wounded died during the Civil War, 8 per cent in World War I, 4 per cent in World War II and 2 per cent in the Korean war.

R. L. Cooper Speaks To Homemakers On Accident Prevention

Mr. R. L. Cooper spoke to a recent meeting of the Calloway County Homemakers club on prevention of accidents in the home, inside and out. The meeting was held at the Calloway County Health Center where Mr. Cooper is administrative assistant.

He described the common accidents and told ways of preventing them. He stressed that yards should be kept in order.

The main lesson in first aid was continued by Mrs. Alice Travis and Mrs. Dorval Hendon, registered nurses at the health center.

Mrs. Hendon spoke on shock—what causes shock, how to prevent it and what to do if a patient goes into shock.

Mrs. Travis described kinds of wounds, their treatment and how to care for serious ones until the doctor arrives.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Dewey Bazzell, Coedwater, Mrs.

Charles Stubblefield, Cherry Corner; Mrs. Pauline Jones and Mrs. Wanda Mathis, Dexter; Mrs. Hoyt Craig, East Hazel; Mrs. James Ward, Eastside; Mrs. Marvin Parks and Mrs. Floyd Taylor, Harris Grove; Mrs. Edwards, New Concord; Mrs. Preston Boyd and Mrs. Bailey Riggs, North Murray. Invents Bottle Cap Kids Can't Open

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Two-year-old Keith Christian, like most children his age, likes to unscrew bottle caps.

But Keith can't get anywhere with the pill bottles in the medicine chest at his home. He can't bite, flip or unscrew the covers because they are protected with a foolproof cap designed by his father.

Kenneth Christian, a barber by profession, is an inventor on the side. The patent on the safety cap is pending in Washington and he had a plastic manufacturer lined up to make it.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE EVERLASTING LIGHT

From the dawn of human history, man has gazed with awe and fascination across the horizon. What secrets are buried in the sea's vast bosom and what strange lands and peoples and adventures are out there beyond the sunset?

The unknown has always presented a mystery and a challenge to mankind. Many have faced it with fear and shrinking. Others have accepted its challenge and have opened up new vistas of human knowledge.

Those who live and search in the Everlasting Light, His Holy Word, need have no fear of what lies beyond the oceans of water, the oceans of human experience, or the oceans of human thought. For the land and the sea are God's, and He rules in the kingdom of men.
